

Bunbury Road Train Assembly Area

Value $3M

Works completed as Watpac Civil & Mining
Director's involvement – Tim Malseed – Operations Manager

FACTS

Client	Main Roads WA	Division	Civil and Mining
Contract	Schedule of Rates	Market	Roads, Rail, Aviation
Location	Bunbury, WA	Commenced	March 2014
		Completion	July 2014

PROJECT OVERVIEW

Road Construction - Bunbury Port Access Road - Road Train Assembly Area

Watpac completed construction of a road train assembly area and associated intersection including bulk earthworks, new pavement construction, two coat emulsion seal, dense graded asphalt, drainage structures, traffic facilities and street lighting installation.

The key challenge facing project management was traffic interaction as part of the Works was a public road. Watpac's skills and experience ensured the project was brought to completion successfully.

SPECIFICATIONS

- 0 11,500m³ of earthworks
- 0 20,800m² of limestone subbase
- 0 18,500m² of limestone basecourse
- 0 8,660m² of gravel basecourse
- 0 24,500m² of asphalt
- 0 6,000m² of two coat emulsion seal
- 0 All associated street lighting, linemarking, signage and kerbing